

SATURDAY JULY 2

ALICE'S DAY

St Frideswide's Church

Botley Road, Osney

10.30 - 11.00 Talk for adults

"Let's pretend we're kings and queens". Alice, Carroll and the Monarchy

The Alice of Lewis Carroll's imagination had many encounters with royalty, but so too did the real Alice, because of her father's position as the Dean of Christ Church; likewise Lewis Carroll, often on account of his skill as an early photographer.

By Mark Davies, local historian and author.

11.15- 11.45 Talk for adults

Princess Frideswide and Other Curious Treacle Well Tales

This talk will explore the story and legacy of the City's favourite princess and patron saint and why Binsey has been an important site of pilgrimage and hope for rich and poor, royals and writers across the centuries.

By Jackie Holderness, local author

12.00- 13.00 Talk for adults

On Alice and being Alice in the 21st Century

A talk about what it was like to grow up as Alice's modern day representative, as well as stories about Alice that I drew from for my novel, The Looking Glass House, handed down by my family.

By Vanessa Tait: writer, journalist and great-granddaughter of the real Alice
